ORAL JUDGMENT

By way of this petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner has prayed for an appropriate writ, direction or order, directing the respondents to proceed with the election programme at Annexure `C' notwithstanding any stay granted by the Registrar's Nominee, Ahmedabad in Lavad Suit No.1357 of 1990.

By an interim order dated 18th June, 1990, the learned single Judge of this Court directed to proceed further with the election programme and the election was scheduled to be held on 17th July, 1990. The term of the Elected Members, who might have been elected in the elections held on 17th July, 1990, must have been over and even thereafter also, at least two fresh elections must have been held. Under the circumstances, the present petition has become infructuous by afflux of time. Hence, it is dismissed. Rule is discharged. Interim relief, if any, granted earlier shall stand vacated. No costs.
